

Plans are being discussed on when property drop-offs, religious services with outside leaders, programs and other Detention Center activities may resume but no dates have been set.

These restrictions have been put in to place to mitigate, to the extent possible, the risks of COVID-19 transmission among the inmates, staff and general public. If at any time the Grayson County Jailer deems it necessary to safeguard the health and safety of inmates and staff, further restrictions may be implemented or the activities suspended entirely.

Jailer Jason Woosley
